

Kathy Durstewitz, Watercolor
Bio Below

Kathleen Durstewitz

Calabash, N.C.

Kathleen is a graduate of Caldwell University in Caldwell, N.J. with a BA degree in Art Education and certification in grades K-12. She was a member of Pi Delta Epsilon National Honorary Fraternity and a charter member of the Intercollegiate Guild of Montclair Art Museum in Montclair, N.J.

She taught art grades K-8 for 27 years in both public and private schools in Rumson and Lincroft, N.J., as well as private adult and children's classes. While teaching in New Jersey she was a charter member of the Shore Area Art Education Assn., member of the Art Advisory Board of Brookdale Community College in Lincroft and a member of the Board of Directors of the American Assn. of University Women.

Kathleen served on the Board of Directors of the Art Alliance of Monmouth County, was an exhibiting member of the Guild of Creative Art in Shrewsbury, N.J., a member of the Board of Directors of the Monmouth Arts Gallery as well as the Monmouth Arts Foundation. She was Chairman of the Monmouth Arts Foundation Merit Award Show in Art and a member of the Foundation Scholarship Selection Committee.

Since moving to North Carolina, Kathleen has continued her pursuit of art with memberships in the Brunswick Arts Council, Oak Island Art Guild, Waterway Art Assn. and an exhibiting member of Associated Arts of Southport.