

LINDA KARASKEVICUS

Born in Mullica Hill NJ, Linda Karaskevics began painting at the age of 15. Although oil portraits and landscapes have always held a special interest, she has recently found a passion for painting Carolina coastal scenes with acrylics. In addition to attending art instruction at the University of the Arts, Philadelphia, PA and Bucks County Community College, she also has studied privately with many accomplished artists through the years. She currently lives and works in Ocean Isle Beach NC. She is a member of the Waterway Art Association, Brunswick Art Council and the Art Association of Southport, NC. "Art to me is a personal expression of life experiences and observations with the intention of uplifting the spirit of the viewer."
