ABOUT THE ARTIST:

Currently residing at the southern coast of North Carolina, I work and teach in my studio, Doe Creek Gallery. I made a full time commitment to portraiture in 2000 and have successfully completed numerous portraits, including both private and academic commissions. I would describe myself as a contemporary realist and work primarily in oils and watercolors. Color and it's relationship to light is the dominate theme in my approach to painting form and I prefer using natural light on my subjects. Over the span of my career, I have painted a variety of subject matter, but my greatest interest has always been in the figure. I feel strongly about my work and with each new painting, strive to increase my knowledge and technical skill as an artist.
