WATERWAY ART ASSOCIATION

Who We Are

Waterway Art Association (WAA) was established in 1991. We are a large group of artists located in southwestern Brunswick County.

Our mission is to “encourage artistic awareness and growth, both on an individual as well as community level.” We are dedicated to accomplishing this goal through exhibits, shows, painting demonstrations, art instruction, classes, professional workshops, paint-ins and outdoor plein air sessions.

Our members’ artistic interests and talents encompass watercolor, oil, acrylic, pastel, pen and ink, Sumi-e, charcoal and more. Beginners through professional are welcome.

We are supported by our members dues, private donations and fees for special events. Members are invited to participate in other community art events in our area.

What We Do

Our informal paint-in sessions are held every Wednesday of each month from 9:00 a.m. to noon for a fee of $1.00. Artists bring whatever projects they wish to work on and simply share the experience of painting together. On the fourth Wednesday, a live model is available for interested artists to sketch or paint for a fee of $3.00.

We hold monthly general meetings September through May (excluding December) on the third Wednesday of the month. Meetings are followed by a program such as a demonstration, lecture or perhaps a helpful critique of members’ work.

We host an annual judged show. There is an accompanying multi-day workshop taught by the judge who is a professional artist. We also host one-day and multi-day workshops, other art experiences and events. Members may enjoy a discount when participating in these events.

Where We Meet

All general meetings and paint-in sessions are held at the Bellinger Artworks Studio, 283B Koolabrew Drive NW, Calabash, NC 28467.

Join Us

Membership in WAA is open to adults (18 years or older) and begins in September. Annual dues of $30 are payable at that time. Members receive a membership card and email blasts announcing upcoming events, meeting and paint-in reminders, art show information and other items of interest.

Members enjoy the collegial atmosphere of meeting with other artists, and a membership discount to fee-charged activities.

To join us, simply fill out the membership form and return it along with a check for $30 made payable to Waterway Art Association at:
